A live-audience talk show · Launching March 2027

About the show

IHNM Show is a live-audience talk show where Scripture, history and today's headlines meet in one conversation. It records at Studio A in San Jose and launches in March 2027.

Format: a host and 2–3 guests (Bible teachers, historians, experts, ministry leaders) in one flowing 45–60 minute conversation, with a live worship open and a studio audience brought into the discussion.

Specials: monthly live panel discussions on one big topic, streamed with audience and live-chat questions.

Sit-Downs: monthly long-form interviews with a single guest.

Schedule: 2 recording sessions a month at launch (one daytime, one evening), 4 episodes a month, released weekly.

Audience and reach

Founding sponsors join before launch, so they are on screen from the first episode and keep their rate as the audience grows.

Who watches: Bay Area churchgoers, families and adults who want Bible-centered conversation on history and current events.

In the room: 15–20 audience members per recording, with on-site parking and a supervised Kids' Room.

Where it's seen: YouTube, Spotify, Apple Podcasts, Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, plus a weekly email newsletter on Substack.

Guest-amplified: every guest, expert, worship team and ministry gets a clip pack and agrees to share their episode with their own followers, so each episode reaches new audiences.

Output each month: 4 full episodes, about 12 longer clips and daily Shorts.

Audience numbers will be reported to sponsors monthly from launch.
